RUMORED FALL OF PORT ARTHUR TODAY

The Reports Have Not Yet Been Confirmed.

Some Lively Skirmishing Between the Outposts of the Armies.

NO DESPERATE FIGHTING

Russians Repulsed.

Oku's Headquarters, via. Fusan, Nov. 11.—A spirited Russian attack on advance post Tuesday night was repulsed after half an hour of musketry fire.

Japs Driven Back.

Mukden, Nov. 11.—The Japanese yesterday assumed the offensive on left bank of the Hun river and occupied three villages. The Russians, however, attacked, drove them out and again established their original lines of defense.

Village Laid in Ruins.

London, Nov. 11.—The Telegraph's correspondent with Gen. Oku cabled under date, November 9:

"Last night the Russians made several determined attacks upon Lamuting and Sinchlagu, but were repulsed with heavy losses. Artillery laid the village in ruins."

Alexieff Back.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—Viceroy Alexieff arrived in St. Petersburg this evening.

HAS PORT ARTHUR FALLEN?

Rome, Nov. 11.—The Tokio correspondent of the newspaper Messagero, wires that a report has reached there that Port Arthur has capitulated.

RUMOR CURRENT IN EUROPE.

London, Nov. 11.—Several reports from private press sources are current this morning that Port Arthur has fallen. No official confirmation has been received, and Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, says he has received no intimation that such an event occurred. A dispatch from Berlin quotes the Lokal Anzeiger as having the same report. The paper says Gen. Stoessel will evacuate today.

PREPARING TO SURRENDER.

Rome, Nov. 11.—The Agenzia Libera has a dispatch from Chefoo stating that a message from Gen. Stoessel, in command of the Russian forces at Port Arthur, has arrived at Japanese headquarters. It is believed his purpose is to ascertain what conditions the Japanese would impose should the Russians surrender the Port.

Must Be Humane.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—The Lokal Anzeiger says that Gen. Nogi, the Japanese commander, has been notified by the Japanese government that he will be held responsible for the humane treatment of Russians if Port Arthur surrenders.

Breach of Neutrality.

Birmingham, Nov. 11.—The Post learns that the Japanese government considers the permission granted the Russian Baltic fleet to coal at neutral ports, a serious breach of neutrality.

Some Lively Skirmishes.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—Gen. Sakharoff today reports a skirmish during the night and says: "Sharpshooters of our right flank, while reconnoitering, pushed far as Sandepu, where they met a considerable force of Japs, who attacked them and attempted to drive them out of Erthaitz. Russian reinforcements appeared and the Japanese retired. On our left flank Wednesday our volunteers attacked the Japanese outpost, killing three Japanese. Their weapons and papers were captured."

Russian General Dead.

London, Nov. 11.—A telegram from St. Petersburg states that Gen. Gripenberg died suddenly from apoplexy. He was recently appointed to command the second Manchurian army and was preparing to depart for the post.

SOME AFTERMATH OF THE ELECTION

Judge Parker to Practice Law in New York.

Socialists Show Great Gains in Massachusetts This Year.

THE OHIO VOTE STILL GROWS

New York, Nov. 11.—Chairman Taggart, who reached New York yesterday, had a long conference with William F. Sheehan and Secretary Woodson, and it was announced that another meeting would be held later in the day, when August Belmont and Delancey Nicolli are expected to be present.

After the morning conference Mr. Taggart was asked how he accounted for the Roosevelt landslide of Tuesday.

"Oh, there were not enough democrats," he replied. "Will the party be reorganized?" "There is no need of reorganization. What we need is more democrats."

Bryan Will Not Go to Senate.

Lincoln, Neb. Nov. 11.—The fusion lists were completely overwhelmed. Of the 133 members of the next Nebraska legislature Bryan will have only ten votes, thus insuring the election of Elmer J. Burkett as the successor of Charles H. Dietrich in the United States senate.

Official Returns to Chicago.

Mr. J. G. Neuffer, assistant superintendent of machinery of the I. C., returned to Chicago yesterday after a business trip to the city. He inspected the local shops and found everything in excellent condition.

Will Practice Law.

New York, Nov. 11.—Judge Parker arrived from Esopus yesterday. He is quoted as saying to friends on the train that he is going to return to the law business. He said he had several engagements under consideration, but has made no decision as yet.

Folk Elected.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—With seven counties still to be heard from, the returns showed that Roosevelt's plurality in Missouri stood 15,755. Of the seven counties unheard from six went for Bryan in 1900. They are remote and sparsely settled.

With the returns from nine counties missing at the same time, Folk's plurality for governor stood 34,885.

Peabody Defeated.

Denver, Nov. 11.—Gov. James H. Peabody, republican, concedes his defeat, Alva Adams' majority over Peabody for governor in the city and county of Denver is 5,071 and in the entire state about 10,500 republicans still claim a majority for Peabody in the state outside of Denver.

The republicans will secure all of the other state officers.

After conceding the election of Adams today Gov. Peabody said:

"The campaign just closed has been one of principles, not candidates. I have tried to maintain peace and order in this state as justly as was possible, and in no case did I exceed the law as interpreted by the supreme court of the state. If the people of the state by their votes failed to approve that policy, I am still satisfied. The people know what they want, and they always have the ballot with which to get it."

Socialists in Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The returns show that the socialist party polled nearly ten per cent of the entire vote of the state.

Ohio's Complete Returns.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Based upon complete unofficial returns from every county, Chairman Dick this morning figured the Roosevelt plurality in Ohio to be 250,937. The official figures will not vary greatly from this.

Vote May Be Divided.

Baltimore, Nov. 11.—The latest test returns indicate that Parker pos-

SEVERAL TO GO.

PADUCAH WATERWAYS DELEGATION PROBABLY TO JOIN CAIRO.

It is not known how many of the delegates to the Waterways convention at Huntington, West Va., next week will go from Paducah, but it is likely that all five of them will. Capt. Mark Cole, S. A. Fowler, H. A. Potter are certain to go, and Major J. H. Ashcraft and Mr. Young Taylor will also probably go.

The Paducah delegation will probably join the Cairo delegation here. The Cairo crowd will number fifteen, and will arrive here Monday night over the Illinois Central, their special car to remain here until 1:40 the same night when it will be attached to the cannon-ball for Cincinnati.

It is likely that the Paducah delegates will leave Monday night on it. Cairo is after the next Waterway's convention, and the Paducah delegates are for our neighbor.

ALL MURDERED.

Auburn, Cal., Nov. 11.—The residence of Julius Weber burned last night and with it Mrs. Weber, Miss Bertha Weber and Master Paul Weber perishing. It is thought the remains of Mr. Weber will be found in the debris.

Suspicion looking wounds were found on the boy's head and a bullet wound was in Mrs. Weber's breast.

Miss Weber's body was badly burned but no wounds were visible. If the husband and father was burned no one is left to tell the tale.

Mr. Miller alleges that this year, a few months ago, the defendants in this action, offered for sale forty-two hogheads of leaf and that he took a sample from each hoghead to sell from and the tobacco was sold. It subsequently developed, the petition claims, that some one had gained access to the samples of tobacco in the inspector's absence, and substituted better grade samples than those taken from the hogheads, and of course when the leaf was sold, brought a better price than really should have been paid. The tobacco was later discovered to be of inferior grade to that in the samples, and Inspector Miller had to pay over to the buyers Mr. Oscar Hank, who took fourteen hogheads, and Mr. William Borneman, who took 28 hogheads, the sum of $788.90, as he was bound to do.

SAYS THE SAMPLES WERE CHANGED

Tobacco Inspector E. R. Miller Sues Mayfield Men.

Claims He Had to Pay, Out $788.90 Because of Inferior Tobacco.

IS A VERY UNUSUAL SUIT

A very unusual suit, growing out of local tobacco sales, was late yesterday afternoon filed in circuit court by Mr. Ed R. Miller, local tobacco inspector, against F. C. Ezell, C. V. Ezell, H. B. Douthitt, S. R. Douthitt and the administrator of G. W. Tharp, all of Mayfield, composing the firm of G. W. Tharp and Co., to recover of the defendants the sum of $788.90 which the inspector alleges he had to pay over to tobacco buyers because of an alleged substitution of samples used in the sale of forty-two hogheads of tobacco offered by the defendants.

The plaintiff is the regular tobacco inspector for this city and his duties are to take a sample of tobacco from each hoghead of tobacco offered for sale here, and the sale of the tobacco is made from these samples. This sample is supposed to be a good sample of the leaf contained in the hoghead, and when it is not the same leaf as purported to be, the shortage on damage as it may be called, is charged to the inspector, Mr. Miller, who has bonded himself to make good the difference.

Mr. Miller alleges that this year, a few months ago, the defendants in this action, offered for sale forty-two hogheads of leaf and that he took a sample from each hoghead to sell from and the tobacco was sold. It subsequently developed, the petition claims, that some one had gained access to the samples of tobacco in the inspector's absence, and substituted better grade samples than those taken from the hogheads, and of course when the leaf was sold, brought a better price than really should have been paid. The tobacco was later discovered to be of inferior grade to that in the samples, and Inspector Miller had to pay over to the buyers Mr. Oscar Hank, who took fourteen hogheads, and Mr. William Borneman, who took 28 hogheads, the sum of $788.90, as he was bound to do.

According to the regulations of the

FROM ENGLAND

SEVERAL PROMINENT TOBACCO MEN WERE IN THE CITY TODAY.

Mr. A. B. Mitchell, of Bristol, Eng., R. C. Butler, of London, and S. McDonald, of Richmond, Va., representing the great Imperial Tobacco company, which is the English "trust" arrived in Paducah late yesterday afternoon, and spent the forenoon looking about Paducah.

They were accompanied here by Mr. Edwin Hodge, of Henderson, Ky., one of their Kentucky representatives, and Manager Glover, of the local plant, showed them what there was to see of interest in this part of the state.

The Imperial's local plant is at Fifth and Clay streets and the coming year the company intends to put up more tobacco than ever before. The visitors left at noon for Louisville.

BALDWIN GOT MAD.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—Following a heated discussion with the aeronautic officials over the question of compensation, past and prospective, for airship flights at the World's Fair, Capt. T. S. Baldwin, inventor of the only aerial craft that has succeeded in accomplishing anything of importance at the Exposition packed the dirigible "California Arrow" for shipment to San Francisco, Cal. and left the World's Fair grounds himself.

TO HONOR "OOM PAUL."

Pretoria, Nov. 11.—A Dutch newspaper, "Londenolk," announces that King Edward, through local authorities has expressed a desire that a royal salute be fired on the arrival of the late President Kruger's body at Cape-town and Pretoria, and that minute guns be fired during the procession to the grave.

A PHILANTHROPIST.

The Owner (after perusing bill for auto repairs)—"Whew! I didn't think for a moment it was going to cost me that much. Can't you shave it a bit?" The Repair Man (grudgingly)—"Well, us poor devils have to live, you know, but I'll tell you what I'll do—I'll risk taking the car and call things square."

local tobacco market, the firm selling tobacco and having such irregularities reported, must pay to the inspector the money he has paid out by reason of the shortage, and although he has repeatedly asked the defendants for the sum, has been refused, the petition states.

This is a very unusual suit and bids fair to create much interest in the tobacco world here and in the surrounding country.

PROSPECTS OF ENDING WAR ARE NOT GOOD

Japan Must Take the Initiative, and Then Russia Might Refuse.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Careful inquiry here fails to develop any change within the last four weeks in the attitude of this government toward the far eastern situation. There has been no move officially that could be considered as indicating a purpose by America to intervene between the belligerents. It was stated, however, several weeks ago, by one of the highest authorities that the president was only waiting a suitable opportunity to do what he could to determine the present war.

Japan Willing.

It is known Japan, having been in full and free conference with the state department here and with Grissom, the American minister to Tokio, for many weeks past, is willing to entertain an offer of good offices from the president or King Edward, looking toward terminating the war. But so far no such intimation has come from Russia and the slightest suggestion of an intention to urge peace upon Russia has aroused both private and official resentment on the part of Russian officials here.

Must Come From Japan.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—In official circles Lansdowne's veiled suggestion that the Russo-Japanese conflict might be settled by arbitration finds an unfavorable echo. The sentiment prevails stronger than ever that Russia's position must be vindicated before an idea of peace can be entertained. The mere fact that the suggestion came from Great Britain's foreign secretary does not tend to its kindly reception here. The firm conviction is expressed that Lansdowne's suggestion could not have been the result of an understanding between the British and French governments, it being stated that the Russian view of the situation is too well known to her ally to make it possible that she could have been a party to such a move.

As hopeless as is the idea of bringing the war to a conclusion it seems however, there are those in high quarters who consider there is bare possibility of bringing the conflict to a close on the basis of arbitration if such a proposition came directly from Japanese. Indeed, it is even intimated that Lansdowne's suggestion may have been inspired from Tokio.

Russia has announced again and again that no proposition from an uninterested power would even be answered, but that any proposition from Japan direct, no matter through what intermediary, would be considered.

A proposal from Japan to arbitrate the controversy would appeal strongly to Emperor Nicholas. He is extremely proud of being the author of The Hague conference and in spite of the difficult position in which Russian military prestige would be left by the cessation of hostilities at this juncture, those competent to judge actually entertain the belief that such an offer on the part of Japan would not be in vain.

Russia is Firm.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Emphatically, but with all courtesy, Russia has through her ambassadors abroad, several times informed neutral powers that she will brook no mediation at this time in the war with Japan. It can be announced that Russia expects her wishes will be respected by all the neutral powers to which she has communicated her views.

Ambassador Cassini said last night:

"I can announce that I have very good reasons to believe my government's emphatic opposition to any mediation at this time will be respected and that it will be observed by all neutral powers."

The Russian government is fully aware of the views of this government on the subject and it is deemed unnecessary at the Russian embassy here again to announce that it is confident this attitude will be strictly adhered to.

VACATED HIS BOND

ARIZONA TREASURER WHO WAS BOUND AND GAGGED BY ROBBERS [SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Immediately after the announcement last Wednesday that County Treasurer Storm had been found, gagged and robbed, his bondsmen took possession of the office, and behind locked doors have been engaged investigating the officers accounts. Upon concluding the investigation it was announced that there was a shortage in the treasury amounting to $18,836. The bondsmen served official notice on the Board of Supervisors and upon Treasurer Storm, withdrawing from the latter's bond. Under the law the Treasurer is allowed ten days to furnish a new bond and upon failure to do so the office will be declared vacant.

The bondsmen offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons who robbed the county treasurer's office.

President Roosevelt to Visit the World's Fair.

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Roosevelt has decided to visit the St. Louis exposition, and will leave here in time to be in St. Louis Nov. 26th.

No News at Washington.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The Japanese legation has received no news from Tokio corroborating the reported capitulation of Port Arthur.

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 25, 1903.
Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral whatever but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise without charge. Book on diseases of the blood free.

Calls Urey a Joke.

(Walter Wellman in Chicago Record-Herald.)

Another vision appeared today unto Urey Woodson, the most artistic and vivid of all the rainbow painters at the Democratic national headquarters. His hopes of carrying Illinois and Wisconsin having been dashed to earth, he suddenly cast his eyes in the direction of New England, and lo and behold! both Massachusetts and Rhode Island were for Parker! Rhode Island was Democratic "for sure," and "the tide was running so strong it might carry even Massachusetts." Unfortunately the newspapers which please Mr. Woodson by putting his dreams into cold type do not label them, and a few of their readers are probably deluded into making wagers on Parker at 1 to 5. It is well known at the national headquarters and about the corridors of the Waldorf that Urey Woodson is only a joke. Today his happiest effort was a claim of 270 electoral votes for Parker.

It's no use talking about loving God when your children are afraid of you.

STOLE JEWELRY FROM EXPRESS CAR

Messenger Running Out of Paducah Arrested.

James S. Henton Caught at Louisville and Confessed to Theft.

SAYS DRINK CAUSED IT

Systematic robberies, covering a period of five weeks from which the Illinois Central railroad has been a victim to the extent of several hundred dollars were cleared up this morning when James S. Henton, aged twenty-two, was arrested and confessed that he was the perpetrator, says yesterday's Louisville Post. Henton is a flagman on the passenger train running between Cecelia and Elizabethtown, Ky., but at times has been employed as express messenger. By his own confession he secured the jewelry and clothing, which he is charged with stealing, while acting in this capacity.

At intervals of three or four days for the past month, reports of missing goods have come into the local office of the I. C. railroad. The last consignment reported to have gone astray was a number of gold watches, and four jeweled rings valued at about $300, which had been shipped from this city to W. H. Cooper, a jeweler at Hager, Ky. The case was reported to the local detectives and Officer Daly, Walker and McCorkill were assigned to ferret it out.

Last night they found a watch answering the description of one of those missing in a pawnshop at Third and Market streets. The pawnbroker furnished the detectives with a good description of the man who had pledged the watch. Through the railroad officials the detectives learned that the description tallied with that of Henton, and when they went to his home at 1115 Maple street, they found part of the missing clothing in a trunk, and one of the rings on the finger of Henton's young wife, who is said to be entirely innocent of all wrong doing.

Henton was arrested when he came in off his run to Paducah at 9 o'clock this morning. He was charged with grand larceny and when taken to the detectives' office made a clean breast of the affair.

To a reporter for the Evening Post Henton said he owed his down to drink. He said he did not care what became of him, but appeared heart-broken when he learned that his wife, to whom he had been married but a few weeks, knew of the affair.

Henton has been in the employ of the Illinois Central for two years, and has previously borne a good reputation.

Defeated Candidate Ends His Life.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 11.—A. P. Saunders, defeated Republican candidate for county commissioner, and well known Guthrie business man and property owner, committed suicide at his home by shooting. The conditions of his business affairs and mental depression over the result of the election are thought to be the motive.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

The gauge today reads the same as yesterday, five-tenths, and standing. Winds from the north. Temperature, 40.

The Henry Harley is in from Tennessee river and will go out on return trip tomorrow.

The City of Charleston is due to go to Golconda today.

The Royal arrived and departed on time today for Smithland.

The Cowling arrived and departed on time today for Metropolis.

As soon as the water rises to a boating stage in the Ohio river Memphis will have a through traffic arrangement from Cincinnati and Pittsburgh and Mississippi river points as far south as Vicksburg, and Arkansas river points as far up that stream as Pine Bluff and Little Rock. Capt. J. F. Ellison, superintendent of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company, has been elected to succeed Capt. R. W. Wise as commercial agent for the connecting lines of both at Cincinnati and Pittsburgh and will at once assume his duties. The arrangement will also include a through rate from thence to St. Louis. From upper river points the freight will be brought to Memphis and transferred for the lower Mississippi and for the Arkansas river. The matter of arranging the through freight rates with transfers at a number of points means a larger volume of traffic for Memphis and the increasing of the volume of business by river, considerably.

—Commercial Appeal.

The City of Charleston leaves in the morning on her trip up the Ohio as far as Elizabethtown, Ill.

Capt. Mark Cole has returned from Cairo, where he has been working for the C. & E. I. on the Condor, transferring lumber.

Capt. Henry Harvey, of New Orleans, is in the city today, accompanied by his engineer, Mr. Johnson, looking at some of the smaller boats for service in the lower Mississippi locks and bayous. He has inspected the City of Charleston, Cowling and others, but has not yet decided on the purchase of any of the boats here.

The repairs on the Chattanooga will be resumed about Monday.

The boat has been at the wharf since she was sold to the highest bidder by the federal authorities, while the purchasers went to Chattanooga to organize another company to run her. This has been done and the boat will be repaired here, and will have to be hauled out again to complete the work.

The big deal involving the transfer of four of Commodore F. A. Laidley's steamboats, known as the Pomeroy packets and the Maysville and Chilo packets, has been completed, and the steamers, Tacoma, Henry M. Stanley and M. P. Wells, have passed into the new company, headed by Captain Gordon G. Green, and to be known as the Cincinnati and Pomeroy Packet company. This company now has twelve boats under its control.

The Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Coke company is preparing for a big business during the coming winter. The recent purchase of the boats and barges of the St. Louis and Mississippi Valley Transportation company will add much to their facilities, and the first rise will be greeted with a large fleet of tows. Preparations are being made all along the river to get barges into Pittsburgh as fast as possible, although there are enough boats at that place at present to send out a large fleet on the first rise.

HOME AGAIN

KENTUCKY BOY ENDS THREE YEARS' SERVICE IN THE ARMY.

John H. Price, son of Gid Price, of the Fryersburg section, has returned from the Philippines, after a three years' service in the U. S. army, two of which were spent in the islands, says the Mayfield Monitor. He was a member of Co. G, Second Infantry, and enlisted at Pueblo, Col. He was honorably discharged Oct. 31, last, at Fort Logan, Colo., and returned home at once.

Mr. Price is now 23 years of age, and enlisted when only 20 years of age. He left this county about 3 1/2 years ago for T. C. C. where he remained for a while. He then took a tour on a bicycle through Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado, and on reaching Pueblo enlisted in the army. He says he had a very good time while in the army, and saw much service, but is not overly anxious to return again over the same ground under the same conditions. His many friends are glad to welcome him back as he is to get back, and he thinks old Graves is the place.

STATE CAPITOL

THE PLANS ARE SAID TO BE SATISFACTORY.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 11.—"We are very much pleased with the plans submitted to us by Mr. Andrews, the architect," said Gov. Beckham yesterday afternoon at the close of the meeting of the State Capitol Commission. "The commission on Saturday will go further into the plans and the location of the several departments in the new building. We have not considered anything other than this."

The plans of Architect Andrews are drawn to the present site. The building he proposes will be 384 feet long, three stories high, and, if erected on the present site, will occupy all of the space from east to west with the exception of twenty-five feet. It will occupy the ground to the Clinton street line on the north, leaving all of the ground possible in front of the building.

ONLY A REMNANT LEFT.

Mr. Cullen Nix died yesterday evening at his home near Hatler's camp ground, and was buried at Sandy Branch this afternoon. He is almost the last of the large Nix family. His son died at Martin two or three weeks ago and now only a small remnant is left, among them being George Nix and Miss Irma Nix, of this city.—Fulton Commercial.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT TO A CAR REPAIRER.

Mr. Thomas Newton, the car repairer, was injured yesterday afternoon at the shops by the accidental falling of a large iron rod.

Newton was standing near the rod which was leaning against the car he was working on. The rod was jarred loose and fell. Before Newton saw it falling it struck him on the top of the head and inflicted a painful gash. The man was knocked down but not rendered unconscious. The wound was dressed at the railroad hospital and the patient will be able to work again by Monday.

WANTED BOARD ON THE STEAM BOAT.

(Courier Journal).

One of the Ohio river packets, out of Louisville wharf, had an interesting but somewhat unusual passenger application this summer. During the warm weather, the captain of the boat received a letter, mailed from a small town up, or down, in Kentucky, which asked if the steamboat ever took boarders. Further the communication stated, that if the steamboat did take boarders, and would offer reasonable terms for the same, three women wanted to come and stay on the boat three weeks and bring their sewing machines with them. They were all in somewhat delicate health, from too close application to daily work at the dress-making business, and had been ordered by their physician to take a long river trip, in order to live, day and night, in pure air. As they could not afford to abandon their work altogether, they had devised the unique scheme of mingling pleasure, health and business, by a three weeks' sojourn on the steamboat. As the good natured captain of the boat in question could find no local marine law bearing against the arrangement, suitable terms were offered and accepted; the result no doubt, being greatly to the benefit of the three industrious working women.

A SAD DEATH

MISS BESSIE WALLACE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS FROM HEART DISEASE.

Miss Bessie Wallace, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, of South Fourth street, died at 9:30 o'clock last night at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Phillips, at Eighth and Monroe streets, after a long illness from heart disease.

The young lady was one of the most popular in the city, and was to have shortly graduated from the public schools. She had resided in Paducah all her life, and her health did not begin to fail until last year. She was better and worse at intervals, but recently her condition became critical and hope was abandoned.

Miss Wallace was popular with hundreds of school children with whom she had associated for years, and her brightness of mind, modesty and other admirable traits endeared her to the older people. In her death her father and mother, brothers and sister as well as friends sustain a great loss.

She leaves besides her parents two brothers, Harry and John Wallace, the latter of St. Louis and one sister, Mrs. George Phillips.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Phillips, burial at Oak Grove.

ORDINANCE BOOK A FAILURE

The board of aldermen held its regular meeting last night with Alderman Singleton absent.

The mayor reported that he had signed a number of ordinances recently passed.

$150 was allowed for the expenses of the delegates of the Ohio Valley Improvement association.

A lot of papers in chain-gang suits against the city were turned over to the attorneys.

The matters of allowing the Fowler-Wolfe company to erect a metal addition to their place on lower Broadway was referred to the fire committee.

$50 was allowed for expenses of Hon. James Lang, appointed delegate to the Tennessee River Improvement association.

Repairs on the sewerage pumping station were authorized made by the board of public works.

The board ratified the payment of $1,700 to Terrell Brothers for a strip of land to open a street through the former's property.

The action of the council in instructing the mayor to select a design for a seal for Paducah was ratified.

The mayor was authorized to borrow $6,700 to pay for the new fire apparatus, supplies, etc.

The mayor reported that the newly revised ordinances were badly mixed up, and that J. C. Flournoy, who was paid several hundred dollars to revise them, got in some ordinances that had been repealed and left out some that were not. It was ordered that the placing of these in the books as addenda be looked after by Attorney Flournoy, Solicitor Puryear and one member from each of the boards.

The treasurer's report showed on hand at present $194,124.

The ordinance granting right-of-way to the Paducah-Cairo electric railroad was passed after an hour's argument in which property owners objected to its going on certain streets, and the I. C. objected to its crossing Eighth and Trimble. The only change made was that the line go to Third and Jefferson instead of Third and Broadway. The route will

MASS OF SORES

Awful Suffering of a Boy
from an Itching Humour.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Was Unaffected.

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did not do any good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura Remedies he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. I used the Cuticura Resolvent for his blood, and now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day."

Our Boys'
Departm't

A feature of our boys' clothing, aside from the big, diversified lines we carry, is the workmanship of each garment. Our boys' clothing is made by the same high price tailors who make our very best garments for men, and as much attention is given the little fellows' clothing as is the men's. In addition to giving the garment style, these tailors make them up right. There is as much in the workmanship of a garment as in the fabrics, and in our boys' clothing you are assured the very best of both. Remember, too, that because our clothing is the perfection of the clothes making art it is not the highest priced. We'll clothing for boys costs no more than any other kind. Come, let us demonstrate that fact.

Our Showings of Overcoats and Suitings Display the Crowning Achievement in Ready-to-Wear Garments.

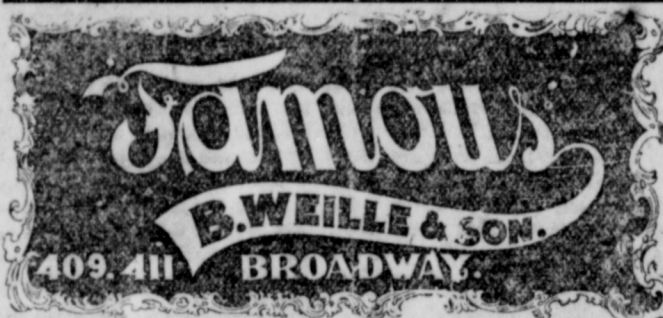

There is as much difference in our ready-to-wear Men's Suits and Overcoats of today and of a few years ago as it is possible to conceive and the fastidious in dress no longer have to go to the high price tailors to gratify their tastes. The best way to convince you of the progress in clothes making is to merely show you a suit of today and one of a few years since. But if we take the features of improvement in detail—if we show you how each piece of cloth is shrunk before made up so as to hold its shape; that the garment is hand-tailored—not machine, in the little details, the collar; the button holes, buttons; shoulders padded so that they always hold their shape; the collar made to fit snug to the neck and not stand away, as was the great fault of the clothing of a few years ago, when we show you these things you will agree with us that our garments are the crowning achievement of the clothes making art. They are priced so that they are in reach of all.

HORSE KILLED

FELL INTO DITCH AND BROKE ITS NECK.

A horse belonging to W. C. Gipson, an aged wood dealer who sells from his wagon on the streets, was killed last evening about 6 o'clock at Fifth and Washington streets by an accident due to the blindness of his horse and to the defective sight of Gipson, who can not see very well.

Gipson was driving along and did not see the lights warning teamsters and pedestrians of the excavations made for the steam heating service at the court house. Gipson's horse walked right into the ditch, and in falling broke its neck.

Every attempt was made to get the animal out last night, but to no avail. It was left in the ditch until morning when laborers of the steam heating company pulled it out.

The horse was not a very valuable one but it is said to have been the main support of the aged wood dealer, and the loss will of course fall heavily on him. The accident was not the fault of the company which had out all required signals.

Two horses belonging to J. Morrison, of near Maxon's Mills, fell into water works excavations near Ninth and Clay streets last night, but both were gotten out before they were hurt. There were danger signals out but the horses became frightened and dashed too near the ditch. One was in pretty bad but Chief Wood, who was near by went to the Clay street fire department and secured a rope with which the horse was lifted out.

Quick Work On Street.

The work of improving Broadway from Fifth to Ninth street is progressing rapidly and within ten days the mechanics with the bitulithic compound will begin work. This morning the work of filling in the car tracks with the concrete began and will consume about one week. The graving and rolling of the street to make the proper solid foundation, is being done today and all will be in readiness for the bitulithic people as soon as the car tracks have been finished.

PAYING BETS.

Some of the Eastern Plungers Were Hard Hit.

New York, Nov. 11.—Stock exchange and curb brokerage houses have been busy paying off election bets. It is supposed that in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 was lost on the election in bets put up through Wall street brokers. Herriek's defeat caused many a heavy better grief, for even at 2 to 1 it had been looked on like finding money to bet on him, and many better hedged on bets elsewhere by backing Herriek at prices from evens to 2 to 1. One of the largest single winners on the election was said to be Chas. H. Marshall, who was credited with carrying away $70,000. Former Congressman Jefferson M. Levy was said to be one of the heaviest single losers. M. J. Kiernan, who was said to be acting chiefly for Mr. Levy, placed about $50,000 last week.

In Brooklyn Senator McCarren's bank account was hard hit. Timothy Woodruff claimed he received from him $3,500 on a wager that Parker would not carry Brooklyn by 25,000 votes. Michael J. Dady got $15,000 on a similar wager.

EVANSVILLE CLUB

Will No Doubt Be in Central League
Again.

Jimmy Ryan, the old National leaguer and last year manager of the Colorado Springs team of the Western league, has practically completed negotiations for the purchase of the franchise at Evansville, in the Central league, of which G. W. Bement is president. Ryan has just returned from Evansville, where he canvassed the situation carefully with President Bement, and has come to the conclusion that there is a bright future in store for a club in that city, if properly handled by an experienced baseball man.

"I have gone over the proposition in Evansville pretty carefully," said Ryan today, "and I am convinced that the failure there last season will not injure the chances of a club this year."

HALLAM TALKS.

Says He Will Not Surrender the New Theater.

As a result of the controversy between James E. English, president of the J. E. English Theater Co., owners of the "English," and F. R. Hallam, the present manager of the English theater, that company held a meeting in their office at "The Kentucky" in Paducah, on the 7th, at which time the resignation of Mr. Hallam was demanded, says yesterday's Henderson Gleaner.

The company then leased the English to T. W. Roberts for a period of three years.

Mr. Hallam said to a reporter of the Gleaner that he had received no notice of the fact that his resignation had been requested; that under a contract made for a period of three years he is still manager of "The English;" that he had complied faithfully with all the terms of that contract, and did not intend to surrender. He further said that he had come all the way from his home in the state of Pennsylvania to make an agreement with the company, that the agreement was entered into, and that he then moved his family to this city, where they now reside.

Mr. Roberts has been in the employ of the English company at Paducah for a period of four years; first as treasurer, then as manager of the "Kentucky" at Paducah.

Mr. Roberts said that he had not thought of taking any legal steps to force the present management to surrender the house to him, that it rested with the company to do all that might be necessary to give him possession.

It is understood, however, that the new lessee has been in consultation with Attorneys Yeaman & Yeaman, and it is probable that legal steps may be taken today or some time soon.

It is rumored that proceedings will be instituted against Manager Hallam for control of the theatre property.

Mr. Hallam, with the exception of the above, made no statement not already known to the public.

Probably Adam would never have married if he had to stand up in a church before a thousand people, with a frock coat on, and go through a ten minute ceremony that seemed like ten hours.

The Political Whirlwind.

Collier's for November 12 tells of the political complications in Kentucky which have grown out of the murder of Governor Goebel four years ago. The writer says:

Aside from any question of Powers' guilt or innocence, he was convicted each time before a partisan
judge and by a partisan jury obtained by methods which the court of appeals criticized in reversing the case. In the first trial Judge Cantrell practically aided in seeing that the jury should be made up of Goebel Democrats. Such methods as these it was that alienated thousands of the best Democrats from their party, and made them advocates. If not of Powers, at least of fair play for Powers. The speech of the defendant before the jury made him friends in all parts of the country.

More fortunate than Powers, Governor Taylor escaped to Indiana, thereby saving his life. For the executive of the state is made the chief figure in the vengeance only because the ex-governor could not be caught.
No one doubts that for Governor
Taylor to set foot on Kentucky soil would be absolutely suicidal. The governor of Indiana has consistently refused to give him up on the ground that it would be impossible for him to get a fair trial in Kentucky.

In the last gubernatorial election,
the Democrats, now controlled by Goebel's political heirs, were triumphant; and a new impetus was given to the eager and persistent prosecution of the feud, political and social.

The Democratic governor, Beckham, in his campaign speeches declared that he would not interfere with the course of the law in the cases of the conspirators tried and to be tried. Colonel Belknap, the Republican candidate, was asked to make his intentions known in equally emphatic terms. He replied that he could not say what he would do
in any particular case, as his action would depend upon the justice of the plea. The question of guilt or innocence aroused at the polls the hatreds springing three years before.
Future elections for many years will be colored with the right or wrong
of the punishment meted out to the men accused of murdering William Goebel.

It is hoped that if the town cow

question is to be agitated again, it will not take the form of a vote of the people. Legislators who cannot see the necessity of keeping up live stock inside a city the size of Paducah have no business holding office.
The advisability of it is too evident to any thinking person to admit of such absurd proceedings as a popular vote. The leaving of this question to the people is not the way to settle it. Many, not all, people in a case of this kind are moved by selfishness. They have cows they desire to turn loose to prey on their neighbors' yards and shrubberies, or on anything else they run across, and will vote to continue to turn them loose without regard to the right of their neighbor to keep his flowers and shrubbery. Even if a majority of the people should vote to allow stock to run at large, it would not make it right, any more than should a majority of people vote to allow stealing to go unpunished, it would make stealing right. Such a law is intended to be a benefit to the city as a whole,
make it more beautiful, attractive and healthy, and to protect citizens who have property that so often falls
a victim to the ubiquitous cow.

Mr. Joseph Folk was elected governor of Missouri, and the vote he received indicates that the people respective of politics, have confidence in him. He was about the only brand
the democrats saved from the burning. He was elected on account of a sentiment in his favor which it is hoped he will not disappoint. Mr.
Folk's work as state attorney in prosecuting bootleggers and breaking up their clique deserved the warmest commendation, but since then Mr.
Folk has turned politician, and in the election just over was found running side by side with some of the bootleggers and their friends, and in speaking for the ticket—the democratic ticket—was asking the people of Missouri to vote for some of the same gang he had been trying for months and months to send to the penitentiary. It is hoped that Mr.
Folk, now that he has the office, will stop trying to play politics and come up to the expectations of those who elected him.

It is reported that Mr. Clem Whittemore, democratic state central committeeman from the First district, is sore over the democratic showing
made in Paducah and the county,
and will oust a number of committeemen and put in others who suit him better. "He has the power to appoint precinct committeemen inside second-class cities. It is probable that this is as good an excuse as the democratic state machine could offer to get rid of some of those who are not quite so susceptible to machine influence as might be desired.

The headlines in several of the papers say "Colorado Republicans Kidnap a Democrat." It was suspected from Tuesday's result that democrats were pretty rare, but it was not generally known that they had become so much so that it was profitable to kidnap them. Probably the idea is to hold this kidnapped democrat until just before the next national election, and offer to release him for a ransom. Owing to their scarcity democrats ought to bring a good price then.

The bitulithic people are showing Paducah how to build streets. They roll their foundation as the foundation for the concrete under the brick streets here should have been rolled.
If it had been, instead of laying the concrete on top of the soft soil, there would not have been so many of the depressions now visible.

Well, Gov. W. S. Taylor can probably remain in Indiana for some years yet to come. Indiana's Republican majority was only about 74,000
Tuesday. It is one of the states Tom Taggart said was going for Parker.

ANOTHER GRAFT LAID BARE.

The disgustingly incompetent city administration cannot even get up a simple book of ordinances and do it right, although its man Friday, who was paid several hundred dollars to do the work was from one to three years doing it. Now it is found that the "revised ordinances" are a miserable failure, like everything else the crowd undertakes. No wonder the people ousted all of them they got a chance at, last Tuesday.

Another thing that some of the property owners along reconstructed streets are very indignant over is that they are barred from taking advantage of the ten year privilege of paying for the street reconstruction because of the ignorance and indifference of the general council in failing to properly pass the ordinances. A set of officials who can't do anything any nearer right than the present boards ought never have been elected to office in the first place, but once their shortcomings were made so plain as theirs have been, they should resign.

Last night the finishing touches were put on, to voting away $1,700
of the people's money to build a street through the woods in the West End.

It is given as an excuse that the street is necessary for "drainage."
This is rot. There is little to drain except the woods and commons. But even if it is necessary for the city to have the property for a street, for "drainage," why not for sake of the taxpayers, condemn it and get it at its real worth, instead of allowing the city to be gouged to the extent of $1,700 for a small strip of land to be used as a street, which will benefit no one except the owners of the property who have sold it for $1,700? It looks very much like graft. If the city needs the land and couldn't buy it for less than $1,700, it should have promptly brought condemnation proceedings and had it appraised. There is no real estate dealer in the city who will say that it is worth anything like $1,700, yet the general council voted the money without any hesitation.

For instance, just for the sake of argument, suppose the city had to have this property for "drainage," which is to be secured by building the street. The charter says that the general council can construct or re-construct streets upon the petition of the owners of a majority of the front of abutting feet of the real estate abutting on such proposed improvement, OR WITHOUT A PETITION BY A VOTE OF TWO-THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS-ELECT OF EACH BOARD OF THE GENERAL
COUNCIL. * * * SUCH ORIGINAL CONSTRUCTION OF PUBLIC
WAYS SHALL BE MADE AT THE EXCLUSIVE COST OF THE OWNERS OF THE REAL ESTATE ABUTTING ON SUCH IMPROVEMENT."

Now what was the duty of the board of works, which recommended the acceptance of the Terrell proposition, and the general council, which subsequently ordered the $1,700 paid? It was to first learn the law and the facts.

If it was decided that the city couldn't get along without the property, it was the duty of these officials to get it as cheaply as possible. This was not by accepting the owners' own proposition to take $1,700 for it.

The city could have gotten it simply by condemning it and paying the few hundred dollars it is worth, and not only that, but then, by a two-thirds vote of the boards, have ordered a street built through the property "AT THE EXCLUSIVE COST OF THE OWNERS OF THE REAL ES-TATE." In this way the city would have had to pay only a small amount of money, and the Terrells would have had to pay the entire cost of the street. Instead, the city pays them $1,700 for the strip of land, and then possibly some of the cost of the street.

If these city officials were qualified to hold public office, they would have gone to the Terrells, when they ascertained that they had to have the property, told them that they wanted it, and that if it were not sold to the city at a reasonable figure they would proceed to condemn it, get it for its actual worth, and then order the street built "at the cost of the abutting property owners," which would have made the cost of it fall on the Messrs. Terrell. This would soon have brought them to terms, and they might even have agreed to give the city the property, considering the fact that the street will do them more good by reason of enhancing the value of their property, than it will the city.

But not an official seemingly could see through the skin-game. Where were the watchdogs of the treasury? Where was the mayor of the city?

No wonder the people are disgusted with such an administration.
What has become of the mayor while all this is going on? Is his voice ever heard in protest when these impositions become so palpable?
Where was he recently when the city held up the telephone company for nearly $4,000, and then allowed a local attorney (an administration pet) to hold up the city for $1,200 of that? Is the mayor a mere figurehead? Is he simply paid $1,800 a year and holding office to see that his friends are not neglected?

cess.

This man launched into a complaint that the editor had failed to print certain articles he had submitted to him. "What have you done with them?" he inquired querulously.

"My friend," replied the editor, "I must thank you for those bits; they have served to a good purpose. The fact is, I am holding them. Now and then I get to thinking that I am not providing the public with as good a paper as I ought to. At such times I look up your articles, which enables me to perceive how much worse the sheet might be. Then I become real cheerful again. Please don't take them from me," he added, appealingly.

Such Is Fame.

Sir John Millais when at the height of his popularity chanced one day to meet an old schoolmate named Popherd whom he had known well in his days of poverty. He called to him by name. The stranger turned.

"And who may you be?" asked Popherd, who looked like a tramp.
"Don't you remember me?" I am Millais," said the great artist.
"Well, it's little Johnny Millais, sure enough," said the tramp, noting the distinguished figure of the artist. "Well, to judge from your appearance, I suppose you gave up art
long ago. What's your line, anyway?
Where did you get your money?"
"I still paint," growled Millais.
"And you have never heard of me!"

His Metrical Pass.

When the late William F. White was traffic manager of the Santa Fe railroad he received a letter from a Kansas politician returning an annual pass of the year before. For some reason or another the pass had not been sent to the politician, who sent

the following verse with the expired

pass:

"Alas! it is said no more I'll dead-

head

My way o'er the glistening rail,

Unless Mr. White will consider it right

To send me a pass by the mail."

This communication pleased

White. He took the expired pass and made an indorsement across the face

in red ink, and then added his signature, a complicated series of scratches familiar to every Santa Fe conductor. This was the inscription:
"The conductors will pass this bundle of gas

From March till the middle of April.

Like any deadhead without a red,

Let him ride to his heart's content."The pass was used by the politician and was accepted unquestion-ably by conductors.

An Egotistical Reason.

(From the Cleveland Plaindealer.)

"What makes you think so?"

"Why, he agrees with me in everything."

IN THE COURTS

The jury in the case of Jack Burke against Charles Clark brought in a verdict for the defendant late yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff was kicked in the face some time ago while in the Clark stable on Jefferson street by one of Mr. Clark's horses and sued for damages. The jury decided that he was not entitled to any.

Judge Reed has continued until tomorrow morning the mandamus suit of John Counts, of Paducah, against officials of Marshall county to compel them to issue a state license for a saloon at Gilbertsville.

In the case of J. D. Smith against Stephen Menard, on account of $50,
the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

W. H. Farley was excused as a petit juror and E. M. Anderson substituted.

In the case of Will Stephen against the Western Union Telegraph company, for $200.00 damages, the plaintiff moved for a new trial.

The case of the Carolina Portland Cement Co. against H. M. Canning-ham, was continued by agreement.

The case of Frank Hagarty against the Continental Casualty Co., was continued.

The principal cases tried in circuit court today are those brought by Dr.
W. T. Graves, health officer, against the city of Paducah to secure about $1,000 alleged to be due him for services rendered which his duties did not call for.

Judge Reed tried the cases and there was much argument made. Judge Reed at the conclusion of the argument at noon stated he would reserve
his decision.

All the jury cases on today's docket being tried the court adjourned at noon for the remainder of the day.

The case of J. N. Cathey against the Rehkopf Saddle Co., was continued.

The plaintiff in the case of W. V.
Eaton, administrator, against the L.
C., filed reasons and motion for a new trial.

The defendant in the case of F. O.
Rudolph administrator, against the L.
C., filed a motion and reasons for a new trial.

WAS UNABLE TO GIVE BOND.

Capt. Joe Woods has returned from Dawson, Ky., where he took H. B.
Law, alias M. J. Faulkner, arrested here at the New Richmond hotel for forgery. Law is alleged to have passed a worthless check for $50 on R. N.
Oates last August, and is said to be a bad man. He was held and unable to give bond and Capt. Wood took him to Madisonville, the county seat, and committed him to jail.
Capt. Woods returned last evening.

DEPOSITIONS IN MURDER CASES

Police Judge D. L. Sanders this morning began a very tedious undertaking, that of taking depositions of more than a dozen witnesses in the William Lightfoot murder case.

Lightfoot is a Paducah negro and is accused of having murdered Roy Sloan, an I. C. flagman on an I. C. freight train at Woodstock, Tenn. He was given a preliminary trial in Paducah by Police Judge D. L. Sanders and held over for the alleged offense.
In Memphis many witnesses were brought in and proved an alibi for Lightfoot but Lightfoot was found guilty and sentenced to hang.

Attorney D. A. Cross, of the city, defended him and succeeded in securing a new trial. The case was continued over until next term of court at Memphis in order to give time in which to take depositions.

Judge Sanders was selected by both sides to take the depositions and started in this morning. The work will require about two or three days.

MR. HOUSTON'S WILL.

The will of the late Attorney Samuel Houston was filed today in county court for probate. The will is short, containing but few clauses, and was dated November 28th, 1903.

The first clause leaves all his estate,
real, personal and mixed to his niece,
Mary Pauline Houston, conditionally.

The second clause enumerates the estate to pay one-third of the income monthly or quarterly for the support and maintenance of the deceased's
sister, Maggie Houston.

The third clause enumerates the estate to pay from the insurance money the just debts of the deceased.

The fourth clause appoints O. E.
Jennings executor of the estate.

BY PROXY

WHAT THE BABY NEEDED.

I suffered from nervousness and headache until one day about a year ago it suddenly occurred to me what a great coffee drinker I was and I thought maybe this might have something to do with my trouble, so I shifted to tea for awhile but was not better, if anything worse.

"At that time I had a baby four months old that we had to feed on the bottle, until an old lady friend told me to try Postum Food Coffee. Three months ago I commenced using Postum, leaving off the tea and coffee and not only have my headaches and nervous troubles entirely disappeared but since then I have been giving plenty of nurse for my baby and have a large, healthy child now.

"I have no desire to drink anything but Postum and know it has benefited my children, and I hope all who have children will try Postum and find out for themselves what a really wonderful food drink it is." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
Both tea and coffee contain quantities of a poisonous drug called Caffeine that directly affects the heart, kidneys, stomach and nerves. Postum is made from cereals only, scientifically blended to get the coffee flavor. Ten days trial of Postum in place of tea or coffee will show a health secret worth more than a gold mine. There's a reason. Get the book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

CALLED IN BUYERS

TWO OF THE LARGEST HANDLERS OF REGIE TOBACCO RECOGNIZE FARMERS.

Clarksville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—A local paper states that they have on reliable authority that two of the largest handlers of the Regie tobacco have called in their buyers, giving instructions on orders not to buy any tobacco from planters outside of the Farmers Association, for the reason that that organization is so complete and strong throughout the Clarksville Dark Tobacco District that there is not enough tobacco held by the independent farmers to supply the Regie demands and the Regie people have decided to buy their supply in bulk directly from the Farmers' Association. This action on the part of the Regie people is looked upon as distinctly a victory for the Farmers' Association in their recently inaugurated fight for higher prices and against the trusts.

Got Even With Publisher.
(From Lippincott's.)

Once upon a time the late Guy Wetmore Cary sold a story to a publisher of magazines. After several months had gone by he received a proof of the story and a note from the publisher. The latter was to the effect that, although the story had been bought, it was hardly what the magazine wanted, and that he would be a greatly obliged to Mr. Cary if that gentleman would sell the story elsewhere and send him the check.

The publisher in question owns a number of grocery stores, and Cary was somewhat of a wag. Therefore his opportunity for obtaining the revenge that he felt was due lay right at his hand. Buying a large can of tomatoes, he removed part of the contents, sealed the can up again, and mailed it to the offending publisher, with this note:

"Dear Sir—The enclosed can of tomatoes was purchased by me from one of your stores. Although the purchase was made in good faith, I find that a change of policy compels me to return the goods to you and ask you to dispose of them elsewhere, re- mitting to me the ten cents that they should bring when you collect. The fact that I am returning this can does not necessarily indicate lack of merit, as many factors enter into the selection of material for 'filling' a modern stomach, and what does not suit me may be exactly what some one else is looking for."

George Edwards, colored, who has been at the city hospital for a month suffering from bowel trouble, died this morning and will be buried tomorrow at the county graveyard. ROOSEVELT HAS NO INTENTION OF STIRRING UP THE RACE QUESTION

New York, Nov. 11.—"The south is going to find that Roosevelt is not the enemy of that section, nor has he any intention of stirring up the race question."

This statement was made by a close friend of the President, after the returns made it certain that the Republican ticket had been elected.

"I don't mean that the President has any apologies or excuses to make for what he has done. He always will stand for the indorsement of the legal and political rights of the negro, but this is no more than McKinley, Cleveland, Harrison and the other Presidents stood for, as under the law was their duty. In the incidents of Mr. Roosevelt's past administration he has been placed in a position when he had to fight for what he deemed was right, and there is no doubt that the President is ready to do this whenever occasion requires it. If the race question is pushed to the front for the next four years it will be because the President is so placed that he will have to fight or surrender a principle, and when it comes to that there is no doubt what he will do, regardless of consequences. I am firmly convinced that during his next term he will whenever possible, avoid stirring up race prejudice, recognizing that it is bad not for all people, white and black in the South, but for the whole country, and if the south will meet him half way there will be no friction and a long stride can be made towards the permanent settlement of the race problem. The President is half a Georgian himself, and, all opinions to the contrary, no section of the country has a warmer place in his heart than that of his mother's family. He recognizes the difficulty which the southern people face, and can understand the feeling against him, though he, of course, feels that is unwarranted and unjust. He believes, however, that no real step forward in the settlement of the race problem can be made unless it is founded on right and justice, and it is this feeling which has made him so tenacious in standing by his actions in the Crum and Indianola cases. I am sure the records will show that no more negroes have been appointed to office by Mr. Roosevelt than by his predecessors. I firmly believe that he will set his face against any drastic action by Congress against the South, and that if the southern people will let him he will be a good and valuable friend."

COUNTRY'S BUSINESS STILL IMPROVES

Payments Are More Prompt
Than Ever.

Activity Shown in Many Places Where It Was Formerly Indifferent.

AND FAILURES ARE FALLING OFF

New York, Nov. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade for last week says:

Business improves steadily and there is no evidence of anxiety regarding the future. Payments are more promptly met, tending to stimulate preparations for coming trade and the disposition to limit purchases to immediate needs is gradually disappearing. Conservation during the summer and autumn had a beneficial effect, reducing stocks to a low point. As demand broadens this scarcity of supply produces pressure for quick delivery, and prices are strengthened. Aside from inflation caused by speculation there is no better sign of commercial progress than 'advancing commodity markets.

All the leading branches of manufacture are in a better position with noteworthy activity at iron furnaces, woolen mills and footwear factories. Fall River cotton mills are still idle because of the wage controversy, but many other New England plants have resumed, and the outlook for this industry is more favorable than at any time since it became demoralized by inflated raw material last year. Traffic reports are satisfactory, railway earnings in October exceeding last year's by 7.6 per cent. Foreign commerce returns at this port for the last week show a gain of $789,276 in exports and a loss of $297,752 in imports, as compared with 1903. Wholesome progress is recorded in the iron and steel industry, sentimental improvement being succeeded by actual business. Thus far the best news comes from blast furnaces, contracts for delivery of pig iron running well into next year, with a further sharp rise in prices. Buyers who procrastinated a few weeks ago are now eager to arrange shipments.

Material is being sought for railway cars, bridges and other supplies, even rails receiving unexpectedly large orders. This new business is accompanied by a good movement of pipe, despite the higher prices and also plates for shipbuilders. Old material has risen sharply.

Limited supplies maintain hides in a very strong position, and some lines are bought in advance of salting. A better demand for leather is noted, large exports to Japan providing a new outlet for stocks. Eastern shoe shops are busily engaged on late fall goods. Prices are fully maintained. Trade in cotton goods is limited to early shipment, neither element in the primary market seeking to thirty-nine the preceding week, and twenty-two last year.

Failures in Canada number twenty-seven against twenty-eight last week, operate beyond the business in sight. Much export business is imminent, judging by the frequent and small difference in views as to prices. Woolen goods are strong and moving freely, the coming opening of heavy weights promising to be at high prices. Raw wools have again advanced, and are an important factor in the situation.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 229 against 233 last week, 215 the preceding week and 246 the corresponding week last year.

OF PNEUMONIA

MR. WILLIAM MITCHELL, A POPULAR RAILROAD MAN, DIES.

Mr. William Mitchell, of South Eleventh street, the well known car repairer, died last night about 10:15 o'clock, of pneumonia, after an illness of a few days only.

The deceased was about 55 years of age and well known among the railroad employes. He was taken ill of a congestive chill Tuesday a week ago and pneumonia set in. His condition had been precarious from the outset and little hope was expressed for his recovery. He leaves besides a wife, one son, Mr. Lee Mitchell and two daughters, Mrs. Isaac Eaves and Mrs. Samuel Bingham, both of the city.

The deceased was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen and of the local camp Woodmen of the World.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon from the house, burial at Oak Grove.

WEATHER "PREDICTION" FAKES.

An article sent out from the official weather bureau says: The question of making long range weather forecasts, for several months or a year in advance, has been studied and worked on for several years, not only by the foremost scientists of the country but those of Europe as well. Meteorological records covering long periods have been consulted and dates of important meteorological events carefully compared with the position of the planets and moon, with periods of greatest frequency of sunspots and other kindred phenomena. This problem is still being carefully investigated, but so far the work has only demonstrated the fact that with the present knowledge of the laws governing weather changes no reliable forecasts can be made covering the seasons in advance. It is to be hoped that the time will come when this great problem will be rewarded by success, and that some fundamental law will be discovered making it possible to state definitely the general characteristics of the weather which will prevail in each locality for the coming season. But at present this is absolutely impossible.

In view of these facts an explanation is in order relative to the so-called long range forecasts issued by certain persons and palmed off on the public in various ways. These are the work of fraudulent impostors or unbalanced cranks, nearly always the former. They are not based on any scientific foundation and are issued for the sole purpose of making money off the credulity of the public. In some cases these fraudulent forecasts are published by the perpetrators in an almanac of their own, which is sold at a good price, bringing in a nice little income; others sell them to the numerous advertising almanacs for a small sum and others are fortunate enough to get some of the newspapers to pay something for them.

The secret of these forecasts is that they are made so thoroughly indefinite as to time and place and so ambiguous in wording that they cannot be held to have any actual verification. One of the best tests of these forecasts is to read one over carefully, even study it, and then see if you can tell what kind of weather is predicted for your county, or state, for that day. Nine times out of ten you will be unable to decide in your own mind what is called for.

There are very few days in the year that do not show storms of some nature in some part of this broad country, and on many days severe local storms are experienced in some sections. These are immediately seized upon, whether in Maine or California and offered as a verification of these rambling and unlimited long range forecasts.

In order to give an air of profundity and mystery to his words, the so-called forecaster refers to "planetary disturbances, magnetic forces, solar perturbations," and similar claptrap phrases which he thinks will interest his readers. He will occasionally predict an earthquake, for the same purpose, of course not limiting its appearance to any locality or any particular date. There is one thing, however, that he cannot be induced to do, and that is to make a positive forecast for each day in the month for any definite locality, as he knows that would soon demonstrate his predictions to be worthless and misleading. His work has very little influence on the business world, as comparatively few business men ever pay any attention to his silly predictions of dire disaster, but as far as it extends its effect is misleading and harmful.

Cannot Go Back.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot has issued an order that hereafter inmates of the poor farm who run away and return for reinstatement shall be barred. Some of the unfortunate are in the habit of causing the county and poor farm keeper a great deal of trouble by disappearing at will, wandering about and returning when they get ready. Judge Lightfoot has ordered this stopped and those who leave the institution hereafter must stay away.

AN OBJECT LESSON

In a Restaurant.

A physician puts the query. Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixty to eighty years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating, you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary, they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous sickly looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity, any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels, and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly and thus giving the stomach a much needed rest and an appetite for the next meal.

Of the people who travel, nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time, and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the traveling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full-sized packages and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

GOT FRESH WITH JEFFERSON.

Joseph Jefferson says that during his long stage career he was never associated with anyone showing undue familiarity except one individual named Bagley, his property man for several years. The man was valuable in his way, and so Mr. Jefferson tolerated his disagreeable manners until Bagley overstepped all bounds one night in Baltimore. The property man got very drunk one afternoon and paid his way into a gallery seat. Mr. Jefferson was playing "Rip Van Winkle." The angry Gretchen had just driven poor, destitute Rip from the cottage when Rip turns and, with a world of pathos, asks: "Den I haf no interest in der house?" The theatre was deathly still, the audience half in tears, when Bagley's cracked voice was heard in reply:

"Only 80 per cent., Joe, old boy; only 80 per cent." He was promptly ejected from the theatre and lost his job on the spot.

"I thank your lordship," said Anne, with dignity.

Seating himself, Cornwallis wrote a hasty line, folded the paper and handed it to her.

"Colonel Dundas' brigade lies with Simcoe at Spencer's ordinary on the Williamsburg road," he said. "He will give you return passes."

The officers rose as she swept a low courtesy from the threshold. The aid

Two of them seized his bridle.

held her stirrup with deference, and she cantered down through the gates and took the west road with a joyfully beating heart and the written order in the pocket of her gown.

But she did not finish the journey. She had farmed some half the way when a far popping came from the distance. The next hill showed puffs of smoke hanging above the trees, and she knew that the sound was the rattle of an engaging musketry. Could her eye have pierced beneath that foliage she would have seen the first skirmish of Lafayette's campaign, the brilliant charge of McPherson's dragoons upon Simcoe's rangers.

She had pulled up, startled at the sound, when a low but familiar voice called her from the thicket.

"John the Baptist!" she cried.

"Yes, Mrs. Anne, it's me," he responded, with a moist grin, parting the bushes. "I warn't gwinter curry no Britisher hosses long! 'Twarn't no use'n 'em wallopin' me—meb hide's tougher'n whitt leather."

"They let you go?"

He threw back his head like a baying hound and laughed loudly.

"Norm! Don't squinch-eyed scoun's nudder let nuttin' go. I kep' me eyes skent on tuk ter de bresh dis vey mawnin' slicker'n er wessel. Greased lightnin' couldn't ketch me! Whut yo' doin' heah, Mrs. Anne? Whut yo' been?"

"At Burwell's."

"Yo' jes' ride likety cut down dar egrain. Dat's de bes' place. 'Speck Mars' John be down dar 'reckly."

For a fortnight Burwell's heard the grind and rush of the armies so near. At length this mornin', Cornwallis had withdrawn suddenly into Yorktown.

Then in early September a momentous message flew from lip to lip. Washington was coming! The wary commander in chief, pretending plans against New York, had led Sir Henry Clinton to recall part of his force from the Chesapeake and then, turning front, had marched with speed for Virginia, where Cornwallis lay with all his army in the elbow of the bay, leisurely fortifying.

Back of this swift march of 400 miles lay vital tidings. A new French fleet was on its way to the Chesapeake. Lafayette drew his troops between the British and a retreat into the Carolinas. The patriot army was hastening down upon them from the north. Would Clinton scent danger and send ships to snatch Cornwallis from the closing jaws, or would the French fleet come in time to block the sea way out?

But Virginia knew nothing of this at first. She only knew that Washington was coming.

One night Anne was awakened to an unusual sight. Out on the Jasper colored river came a succession of huge barges, and from them, above the plash of oars and creak of cogwheels, rose the hum of a multitude. She leaned far from the window to listen. How like phantom shadows the bristling floats swept past! "What can it be?" she cried.

"Tis the French, come in the fleet of De Grasse," said Mr. Burwell. "It must now be at anchor in Hampton Roads. Thank God! Thank God!"

There was a thrill of rejoicing in his tone, but Anne's heart beat painfully. Hope and help were come to her land—to Virginia the beautiful, the fragile, the tender. The first promise of this help had come to it when strong arm called to counsel and counsel to strong arm and both feared to answer. And he who bore that message? Denied by her lips that called to him, dishonored by her hand that ached for a touch of him, what thought now had his heart for her?

The dark shapes passed on to the north of Jamestown island that night and disgorged an army. Silently they filed up Archer's Hope creek and drew, with Lafayette's troops, the fatal cordon about Yorktown.

The fleet that brought them lay in the river mouth below, and when the British ships which Cornwallis had been promised hove to that same day with fourteen hundred guns, De Grasse's watchful frigates battered them away.

The would-be rescuers sailed back, and Cornwallis woke to find himself entrapped.

On the day Washington's allied armies marched into Williamsburg, Anne stood with Colonel Tilton on the steps of the capitol to see them pass. The Continentals were ragged, worn with painful marches in heat and rain, with stained ragged old wounds, but with the unquenchable resolve in their faces. Rochambeau's French were uniformed in white, with rose colored facings, eager, debonair, carrying gold wrought standards that caught the sun.

Anne watched through smarting eyes. Somewhere, waiting there, among those other troops lying panting against the hills nearer Yorktown, was the one face which meant the whole war—the whole world—to her.

Steadily, under the enemy's fire, batteries rose along the parallels. From one to another of these rode Knox, placing his gunners, his round, jovial face creased in smiles, in his element at last. And these gunners for five days, from sunrise to sunset, buried iron and flame upon the defenses.

The inner parallels crept toward the river bank, tightening the line. Here their advance was stayed by a redoubt on the high bank, thirty feet above the river. It had resisted all the force of the gunners.

"If we take that redoubt," said Washington to Knox on the afternoon of the fifth day of the bombardment, "Cornwallis must surrender."

Colonel Armand, with a handful of his troops, reconnoitered that afternoon on the right, came near the river and in advance of the foremost American battery. From the redoubts far to the left came a scattering whistle of grape and now and then the grinding beek of a cannonade. The air was full of the heavy, pungent smell of burned powder and the reeking scent of fresh turned earth.

His gaze had sought the wide river for a moment and turned up the stream with a look that was fixed and far away.

"A prisoner, coming from the town, captured under the river bank, sir," the voice recalled him. "Bring him here."

The man brought before him looked with a start, then smiled with a gleam of mockery on his ruddy lips. Armand's face was immovable.

"Still the same, colonel," the newcomer flaunted, with a glance at the other's uniform. "Still Captain Jarrat. My Philadelphia wound, as you see, proved not so bad. I am on my way now out of the precious rat trap yonder. I have small liking for these peculiar delays. Suppose you scribble me a pass through the lines."

"Serjeant," said Armand, "take this man to the trench and give him ten minutes to go back to his own regiments."

A swarthy red came to Jarrat's face. "I will speak with you alone a moment. I have a communication to make."

At Armand's nod the others fell back. "What is your communication?" he asked sternly.

"You have covered your past very well, but I know you. Do you remember that day at the congress? Well, I am not dumb. Now, will you let me go?"

"What is your communication?" he asked sternly.

STRUCK BY WHEEL

GIRL PAINFULLY BUT NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.

Miss Dulah Clark, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. G. W. Clark, of 826 North Sixth street, employed at the Cohankus Mfg. Co., was accidentally struck by Mr. Frank Baskette who was riding his bicycle, this morning about 8:45 o'clock at Fourth and Broadway, and knocked down, but the injuries are slight and the young lady was able to go home a short time after the accident.

Mr. Baskette was not riding fast but was unable to stop when the girl started across the street directly in his way. The rider was unable to see the girl on account of a crowd of men standing on the corner, and when she suddenly darted out of the crowd, the rider attempted to turn. Both saw they were going to meet and the girl screamed just as the wheel struck her. She was knocked down but was scarcely frightened than hurt. Mr. Baskette carried her to the Eley Dry Goods store and Dr. J. T. Redick was summoned. An examination showed she was merely bruised.

The girl's screams after the collision attracted a great crowd about the store.

ASKS DAMAGES. President Castro Claims Over $4,000,000 From General Matos.

Mazatlan, Mexico, Nov. 9.—Advice just received here by steamship from South and Central American ports are as follows:

President Castro, of Venezuela, has filed against General Matos, the revolutionary leader who attempted to overthrow the Castro government, for 25,000,000 bolivars, or about $4,750,000. The claim is based on damages caused by the government of Venezuela through the revolution. General Matos is now living in Colombia, but he has extensive property interests in Venezuela. The move on the part of President Castro means that all of the Matos property will be confiscated.

There is a movement on foot in that country for the removal of the capital from Bogota to Cartagena. It is said that President Reyes is in favor of the change on the ground that international relations could be looked after better in Cartagena than in the interior city of Bogota.

The boundary between the Central American republics of Nicaragua and Honduras, over which there has been disputes for several years, is to be finally determined by a boundary commission. Each of the republics has named a commissioner and the third will be Jose F. Godoy, Mexico's minister to Central America. The dispute concerns the boundary line on the Atlantic side, Nicaragua holding that it should be Cape Cameron, a point north of Cape Gracias a Dios. The contention of Honduras is that the boundary line should terminate on Sandy Bay, about thirty miles south of Cape Gracias a Dios.

He Wanted to See John. In anticipation of the horse show in New York an uptown carriage house is displaying in a broad show window wag figures of coachmen in uniform, surrounded by the latest fads in saddle and carriage fittings. A few nights ago the policemen on the beat saw a man violently shaking the main doors of the establishment. Then he tapped on the window and beckoned to one of the figures inside.

"Come out here, John," he shouted. "Come out and have a drink."

"Friend of yours?" asked the policeman.

"Sure," replied the man. "Didn't I sit beside him for a whole year when he was coaching for Dr. Dix? Come out here, John," he repeated, again rapping on the window. The policeman put the man on an uptown car, telling him to call around and see John in the morning.

STURGIS COAL

Even if it is the best coal
you can buy for your money.

A little of it goes a long way. Sturgis coal burns 15 per cent. longer than any other coal—because it contains no carbon.

It's the purest of soft coal, being mined in the famous Sturgis coal vein region.

It is screened three separate and distinct times before it enters your coal bin.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure
The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner Sure Cure. This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 506 S. Third St. MRS. SUR GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

COMMISSION MEETS

VOTE IN THE COUNTY IS NOW BEING CANVASSED.

This morning Captain E. Farley, of the city, and Mr. J. M. Martin, of Grahamville, election commissioners, met at the court house in the county clerk's office and began the work of canvassing the election returns for this county.

By virtue of his office, Circuit Clerk Emory Hobson is a member of the board and should preside as chairman, but as he is absent from the city and not able to be here, Captain Farley and Mr. Martin are canvassing the returns alone. The canvass of the county precincts will be completed first and then the city precincts will be worked on. The work will last several days and after completed the certificates of election will be given those elected.

INSPECTOR OUT

MR. M'GINTY BETTER AFTER ATTACK OF RHEUMATISM.

Contractor W. H. Bailey, of Henderson, who built the addition to the post office here, was in the city today but left at noon for Owensboro on business. He will return soon.

Mr. L. E. Koerner, his superintendent, who was called to Legansport, Ind., by the illness of his wife, is in the city again and will stay until the return of Contractor Bailey and complete all work to be done here. The work has all been accepted but there remain a few odds and ends of business to attend to.

Mr. Paul P. McGinty, the inspector who looked after the work for the government here, is out today after a three weeks' illness of rheumatism. It was rather an odd coincidence that Contractor Bailey, his foreman and Inspector McGinty all get to gather the first day the two former arrived and the first day Mr. McGinty was able to leave his room.

(Rockford, Ill., Telegram to the Chicago Inter-Ocean.)

Ten cents was the fee offered the Rev. B. E. S. Ely today by a Wisconsin young man, whom he had just married. The newly made groom claimed that that was his last dime, saving only enough to carry himself and bride back to Beloit. For that amount the person had also allowed the young man the use of a room to arrange his toilet. Mr. Ely refused the dime, but the young man left it on a table.

The up-to-date girl holds that none but the rich deserve the fair.

DIAMOND QUEEN

Has Been Released From Georgia Prison.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10.—Mamie de Cris, famous all over the country as the "diamond queen," has been freed from the Georgia penitentiary. This young woman first acquired a reputation by the marvelous tales she related while a guest at a hotel in this city. These tales, dealing with imaginary runaway accidents, in which prominent persons were said to have been injured, attracted much attention, and through them she gained much notoriety. This notoriety proved unlucky for her, however, as it led to her arrest. The publication of her picture in an Atlanta paper fell under the eye of a jewelry firm in Savannah which had been cleverly defrauded out of valuable diamonds and other jewelry, and they recognized the picture as that of the young woman who had perpetrated the swindle. An investigation followed and Mamie de Cris was arrested, tried, convicted and sent to the state farm at Milledgeville.

A little later she again leaped into public notice on account of a whipping given her by the prison official. This was the sensation of the hour for a time, and was discussed in newspapers throughout the country. Several of the prison employees lost their positions as a result of the investigation following the disclosures. Petitions asking her pardon rained in upon the governor, but in consequence of her long record as a dangerous criminal the woman was obliged to serve out her sentence.

Supply of Oxygen for Firemen.

(From the English World's Work.)

An experiment has recently been made in Paris with an ingenious apparatus, invented by M. Guglieminetti and M. Draeger, by means of which it is possible to remain without fear of asphyxia in places where it would otherwise be impossible to breathe. The apparatus is automatic; that is, it has no connection with the air outside.

It is composed of a tube containing a provision of oxygen sufficient to last a man for breathing purposes for more than an hour, and a helmet of aluminum, fitting the head exactly by means of a pneumatic pad. The oxygen is supplied automatically to the man's mouth and the air exhaled is received in a compressible bag.

It passes through a regenerator with granulated caustic potash, which absorbs all the carbonic acid. A fireman provided with this apparatus, went down into a cellar in which piles of damp straw had been lighted, and although there was suffocating smoke from this, he remained in it for nearly three-quarters of an hour without being at all inconvenienced by it.

Nothing Remarkable.

(From the Washington Star.)

"I can remember," said one old inhabitant, "when the land on which this town was built could be bought for a song."

"Yes," answered the other, "and I can remember when it wasn't worth that much."
